Community Support-Child Endorsement Check Sheet Instructions

Introduction

Prior to site and service endorsement, business verification must take place. In the process of business verification, the business information presented on the provider endorsement or DMA CIS (Community Intervention Services) application is validated. At that time, the provider organization submits a self study of the core rules (10A NCAC 27G .0201-.0204) verifying that they have met all the requirements therein. (The provider is not required to submit this if nationally accredited, licensed with DFS or has had a compliance review from NC Council of Community Programs within the past three years.) The documents created in adherence with the core rules should be utilized as evidence of provider compliance where noted in the check sheet and instructions.

The following set of instructions is to serve as general guidelines to facilitate the review of providers for conditional and full endorsement. Service definition, core rules (as noted above), staff definitions (10A NCAC 27G .104) and other DHHS communications (e.g. Service Records Manual Communication Bulletins, Implementation Updates and other publications) should be used to support the reviewer's determination of compliance. In addition, the Business Entity Type Reference document (attached) assists to clarify the requirements for different business entities such as corporation, partnerships and limited liability corporations and partnerships.

Provider Requirements

In this section, the provider is reviewed to ascertain that requirements are met in order for services to be provided. The provision of services is addressed later in this endorsement process.

- a (1). Review identified documents for evidence the provider meets DMH/DD/SAS and/or DMA standards as related to administration responsibilities, financial oversight, clinical services and quality improvement. These standards include, but are not limited to, policies and procedures (contents of which are mandated in 10A NCAC 27G .0201 – Governing Body Policies) and the key documents required by law for the formation of the business entity. (Refer to attachment titled Business Entity Type.)
- a (2). Review of policy and procedure manual should demonstrate language indicating intent to secure national accreditation within three years of their enrolment with DMA. Review DMA enrollment document to verify provider's date of enrollment. Once the provider has been enrolled with DMA for a period of three years, a certification of national accreditation or some other evidence supporting the provider organization's achievement of national accreditation must be produced and validated.
- a (3). Review documentation that demonstrates provider is a legal US business entity. Documentation should indicate the business entity is currently registered with the local municipality or the office of the NC Secretary of State, that the information registered with the local municipality or the Secretary of State is current, and that there are no dissolution, revocation or revenue suspension findings currently attached to the provider entity. Also review corporate documentation demonstrating registration to operate a business in NC. Information for corporate entities may be verified on the web site for the Secretary of State. (Refer to key documents section of attachment titled Business Entity Type.)
- a (4). Review policy and procedure manuals and program descriptions for language demonstrating that services will be delivered in the home, schools, homeless shelters, street and any other community location. Also look for documentation that use of state funds will allow for services in detention centers and jails. In addition, look for documentation that use of state funds will allow for services in detention centers and jails. Review MOAs and formal/informal agreements with community partners specifying agreement between parties to coordinate and collaborate the delivery of service in specific locations. Review PCP and other service record documentation for documentation specifying services are provided in community location(s). The service notes and other evidence that the services are actually being delivered is reviewed later in this endorsement process.

- b. This is not an evidence-based practice at this time; therefore, this requirement is applied to the extent that the reviewer checks to ascertain that the Community Support Services worker assesses the need that established curricula for interventions are used within the context of Community Support Services and that when a consumer's need indicates, he/she is referred to an evidence-based practice. These criteria are reviewed later in this endorsement process. Reviewer may want to verify provider understands that if consumer needs more intensive services, consumer is to be referred to a more intensive Enhanced service such as Intensive In-Home, MST, CST or ACTT. It is recommended for reviewer to have a discussion about use of best practice models in the Community Support Services delivery, such as Motivational Interviewing and Integrated Dual Disorder Treatment.

Staffing Requirements

In this section, the reviewer is primarily concerned with the hiring practices of the provider and ensuring that all employees in place are equipped with the education, training and experience to work with the population served in the capacity and at the level of intervention for which they were hired. The review of the provision of services is more thoroughly examined in the "Program/Clinical Requirements" section of the endorsement review.

- a (1). Review employment application, resume, license, certification, or other documentation for evidence of degree and work experience with the target population the provider serves. In some cases, reviewer may need to verify the source of the degree to ensure that it is a credible and valid degree. Review employee training plans or other documentation demonstrating training has been scheduled and/or received according to core rules, consistent with the role of the level of the professional providing Community Support Services. Ensure that employee is trained to fully understand and implement designated level of support (PCP, data, medications, etc.).

Service Type/Setting

The elements in this section pertain to the provider's having an understanding of the Community Support Services and the service delivery system.

- a. Review of provider policy and procedure manuals and program descriptions demonstrate that the Qualified Professional (paraprofessional and Associate Professional as needed) provide direct interventions on behalf of the consumer in any location in the community with an individual or a group of no more than 8. Also review for language that the Qualified Professional arrange for, coordinate and monitor services on behalf of the consumer. For providers currently billing for Community Support Services, review policy and procedure manual, program descriptions and job descriptions for language demonstrating that the Qualified Professional (paraprofessional and AP as needed) is expected to provide direct interventions on behalf of the consumer in any location in the community with an individual or a group of no more than 8. Also review for language that the Qualified Professional arrange for, coordinate and monitor services on behalf of the consumer. For example, reviewer would expect to see PCP indicating Qualified Professional to connect youth to after school program at the YMCA. A review of the service notes should indicate that the Qualified Professional actually connected the youth to the after school program at the YMCA and visited the youth there to monitor that the after school services were meeting his needs.

In addition, review PCP for evidence that the Qualified Professional is expected to provide direct and indirect interventions with the consumer, in any location. Review service notes for evidence that the Qualified Professional is actually providing indirect and direct interventions in any community location with the consumer. Review claim form for location of service.

Review of the provider policy and procedure manuals and program description ascertain that Community Support Services to consumers residing in higher level residential treatment homes are to be limited to transition into or out of Community Support Services. In addition, review PCP and service notes for evidence that Community Support Services to consumers residing in higher level residential homes is limited to transition into or out of Community Support Services. Review service notes for same. Review claim form for location of service. For example, if youth is being transitioned to Partial Residential Treatment Facility, reviewer would expect PCP to indicate that the Qualified Professional to assist with transition for a limited amount of time and a service note would document that Qualified Professional actually assisted in the transition of the youth to the PRTF for limited time.

- b. Review of provider policy and procedure manuals and program description demonstrate that Community Support Services can also include telephone time and collateral contacts to consumer who assist the consumer in meeting goals. For providers currently billing for Community Support, review policy and procedure manual, program descriptions and job descriptions for language demonstrating that Community Support Services can also include telephone time and collateral contacts to persons who assist the consumer in meeting goals. Review PCP and service notes for evidence that Community Support Services include telephone time and collateral contacts to persons who assist the consumer in meeting goals. Review claim form for supporting information. For example, a reviewer would expect PCP to indicate that the Qualified Professional will monitor progress of youth at the after school program by talking to the staff there on a regular basis. A review of service notes should verify that this is actually happening.

Program/Clinical Requirements

The elements in this section are reviewed as they pertain to service delivery. It is important that consumers are served in accordance with the service definition according to individual needs identified in the PCP in regard to the frequency, intensity and type of therapeutic interventions. Interventions should reflect clinically recognized models (therapeutic mentoring, positive behavioral supports, motivational enhancement therapy, anger management, etc.).

- a. Review of provider policy and procedure manuals and program descriptions for language demonstrating that services will be provided at least 2 times per month with one of these contacts being face-to-face with the consumer. Review service notes, PCP, contact log and/or claim form for evidence that each consumer has received a minimum of 2 contacts per month with one of the contacts being a face-to-face with the consumer.
- b. Review of provider policy and procedure manuals and program descriptions for language demonstrating that services will be provided aggregately, 60 % face-to-face with the consumer and 60% in the community. Review service notes and/or contact log, and claim forms for aggregate face-to-face contact with the consumer equals 60% of the service delivery time. Review service notes and/or contact log, and claim forms to calculate and ensure that aggregate totals for contact with the consumer in the community equal 60% of the service delivery time.
- c. Review of policy and procedure manuals and program descriptions for language demonstrating that services will be provided at a ratio of 1 Qualified Professional to 15 consumers individually and 1 Qualified Professional to 8 consumers in group. Review caseload assignment sheet and service record for the numbers of consumers are served per Qualified Professional to not exceed 15 individuals and 8 in group.
- d. Review policy and procedure manuals and job descriptions for language demonstrating the expectation that the Qualified Professional are responsible for the development, monitoring, revising and updating the PCP. Review the PCP for evidence that the Qualified Professional was the lead in the development of the PCP and the planning meeting for same. Review revisions, updates and service notes for evidence that the Qualified Professional continued the responsibility for leading PCP planning.
- e. Review policy and procedure manuals and job descriptions for language demonstrating the expectation that the Community Support Services provider will ensure provision of first-responder services for all of the consumers. This includes either face-to-face or telephonically 24/7/365, and have the capacity to respond face-to-face within 2 hours, as well as have access to the crisis plans of consumers. Review crisis plans and service notes for evidence of crisis plans and that the consumer and/or legally responsible person is aware of the crisis response procedure and the phone number to reach the Community Support Services provider. Review on-call rotation schedules for evidence that after hours crisis response is available. Review procedure for crisis plans to be made available to the Qualified Professional on-call. Call crisis number and “mystery shop” to verify access according to requirements.
- f. Review policy and procedure manuals and job descriptions for language demonstrating the expectation that the Community Support Services provider ensures the Qualified Professional is responsible for functions including to develop, monitor, revise and update the PCP; on-going contact between the Qualified Professional and the consumer and collateral contacts to monitor services. Review service notes and PCP for evidence that the Qualified Professional actually is developing, monitoring, revising and updating the PCP. Evidence such as service note documentation for planning meeting, on-going assessment of consumer's needs, or collateral contacts with other community providers working with consumer.

- g. Conditional: Review policy and procedure manuals and job descriptions for language demonstrating that the Community Support Services provider ensures each consumer receives appropriate interventions to assist in meeting needs and goals and building on strengths. Review service notes that the paraprofessional or Associate Professional (or Qualified Professional if provider chooses to) is providing skill building interventions such as; support ongoing treatment and functional gains; one-on-one interventions with the consumer to develop interpersonal and community relational skills; therapeutic mentoring; symptom monitoring and self-management of symptoms, etc. Evidence such as intervention for specific skill building identified on PCP, service note indication that skill building intervention for a specific skill has been provided to the consumer.

Documentation Requirements

All contacts for Community Support Services must be documented - a daily service note is the minimum requirement. Documentation must meet all record and documentation requirements in the DMH/DD/SAS Service Records Manual.

Review policy and procedure manuals and job descriptions for language demonstrating the expectation that the Community Support Services provider will ensure service documentation is completed per Medicaid guidelines. Reviewer examines documentation containing: a service note that includes the recipient's name, Medicaid ID number, date of service, purpose of contact, describes the providers intervention, includes the time spent in performing the interventions, effectiveness of intervention, the signature and credentials of the staff providing the service. For example: Service note for John Smith MID 123-45-6789 - AP provides intervention of teaching how to plan a meal for dinner for the purpose of meeting the goal for John to live independently when he turns 18. AP described the various parts of the meal and offered guidance on choosing from each food group. John was able to appropriately choose from meat and bread food groups but needed some assistance with choosing from vegetable food group. AP offered further examples of how to pick from vegetable food group. John stated he felt he could chose from the different food groups after intervention was finished. Time 1hour. Signed Debbie Webster, AP, BA.
